

We do long-distance traveling. XM's traffic and weather broadcasts provide valuable information, contributing to the safety of our travel. We pay for this because we want it and consider it to be a great aid in our travel. We also value the freedom to choose music and programs we wish to listen to as we travel thru various states.

The First Amendment gives us the right to choose to purchase this satellite service and we believe it gives XM Satellite Radio the right to provide it.